How to Register for the Online RCR Course in Brainer

1. Login into Emory’s HR Self-Service system

2. After signing in, click on the “Learning Management” tile.

3. Select the Brainer Platform

4. Go to “All Learning” on the landing page, select “Browse by Title,” or use the search function. Search the training using “RCR” until you find the in-person training. Click on it to go to the registration page.
5. Click on “Request Access” to request registration for the course. Please remember you are committing to attending all the training dates by signing up. You will not receive credit if you miss one of the sessions.

6. Once you receive access, you will receive an email when your access is granted. Check your junk email!
7. You can now return to the system and access the information to complete the first day.
