

Final Rule- ORI Research Misconduct Regulations

Let's Compare

2005

2025

Full Committee needed for Inquiry and Investigation

Honest error determined at Investigation

No need to document assessment

No requirement to share transcripts

Critical definitions missing

Some process unclear- required ORI consultation

60 days for Inquiry/120 for Investigation

No clear process when more than one institution is involved

Reporting template, interviews, record-keeping requirements not defined

Committee only needed at Investigation

Honest error determined at Inquiry

Assessment documentation is now required (already in place at Emory)

Interview transcripts required (can be redacted)

Regulation provides critical definitions (recklessness)

Answers on subsequent data and data corrections

90 days for Inquiry/180 for Investigation

If more than one institution is involved, Emory RIO will determine lead institution process

Emory currently uses:

- Similar templates,
- Court-transcriptionist for interviews
- Keeps detailed records
